The screenshot shows the UST Center for Teaching and Learning website. The navigation bar includes links for Faculty Support, Learning Support, e-Learning Support (highlighted), OCW, and Community. Below the navigation bar, the 'e-Learning Support' section is visible. A red box highlights the 'PowerPoint Templates' link under the 'Contents Production Support' menu. Below this, the 'Web Lecture Authoring Tools' section is shown, including a link to 'Web Lecture Authoring Tools(UST CMAKER)' and a 'DOWNLOAD USER MANUAL' button. The introduction text states: 'With web lecture authoring tools, users will be able to produce lecture notes and classroom materials online. The produced materials may be access off-line and used for supplemental materials for lectures. (Blended, Flipped Learning)'.

4. Preview and download the template you want.

The screenshot shows the 'PowerPoint Templates' page. A red box highlights the navigation bar with links: UST 소개자료, UST 기관 고유 템플릿, 디자인 템플릿, 애니메이션 템플릿, 프리미엄 템플릿, and 스마트아트. Below the navigation bar, there are six template cards, each with a preview image, a title, and a 'View / Download' button. The templates are: UST introduction 8pages, UST introduction 6pages, UST introduction 4pages, UST introduction 3pages, UST introduction 2pages, and UST introduction 1page. A 'TOP' button is visible in the bottom right corner.
